

2012 ALBURY ART PRIZE

Over its 62 year history New South Wales' oldest Municipal art award, the Albury Art Prize, has acquired a substantial number of major works by internationally renowned artists such as Noel Counihan, Fred Cress, Robert Jacks, Louis Kahan, Deborah Klein, Daniel Moynihan and Imants Tillers. This year the Albury Art Prize has provided $20,000 for an international residency, attracting visual artists from across Australia.

3 ARTISTS, 3 VISIONS WORKSHOP

3 Artists, 3 Visions is a program that has been running at the Albury Art Gallery for the past three years.

This workshop gives local artists the opportunity to meet and work with a selection of artists represented in the Albury Art Prize for a day of inspiration, creativity and learning.
